PETITIONING THE COURT

The offender not having waived a hearing, the probation officer requests that a summons be issued and a hearing held to modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- You shall reside at and participate in the program of a residential re-entry center for a period of 30 months as approved and directed by the probation officer.

CAUSE

Corina Fox failed to show for required drug/alcohol testing on the following dates: December 14, 2011, December 16, 2011, December 20, 2011, January 25, 2012, January 27, 2012, and January 30, 2012. On January 31, 2012, Fox was questioned about her missed drug/alcohol tests. Fox stated that she forgets to call the drug line nightly as required and therefore is unaware if she is required to test or not.

RE: CORINA MARIE FOX

As a correctional intervention, Fox and her supervising officer reviewed the requirements for drug/alcohol testing. Fox was also counseled on the importance of compliance with this condition. As a controlling intervention, the probation office recommends that Fox's conditions be modified to include the placement and participation in the program of a residential- re-entry center for a period of 30 days. Fox is not in agreement with the probation officers recommendation and is unwilling to sign a Probation Form 49 (Waiver of Hearing) to modify her conditions of probation. It is requested that a summons be issued to address Fox's violations of supervised release.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the information contained herein is true and correct.

Executed on February 9, 2012.
